

Emneevaluering

Emnekode: MAPSYK 330
Navn på emne: Masteroppgave i psykologi
År/semester: 2019/vår
Emneansvarlig: Andrea Bender

Innledning:

MAPSYK330 is not a regular course based on teaching, but the master thesis – that is, the final qualification to be taken by the candidate. This is highly individual, both with regard to student activities and because the supervisors are autonomous in their supervision. The main task connected to the course is safeguarding that all students find both a topic and a supervisor, and that they are provided with the opportunity to complete their thesis in the scheduled time. This includes consultancy in case of unexpected questions and attempts to find solutions for unforeseen issues. As the course involves coordination tasks rather than teaching, no evaluation in the conventional sense has been conducted. The current assessment is therefore based on general considerations.

This course is typically taken in autumn. In spring 2019, there was just one student enrolled; this student delivered on time and passed.

| The course is structured – in standard cases – by the following deadlines: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a first, rather weak ‘deadline’ in late spring / early summer for settling on a topic and on a supervisor • a deadline for the supervision contract in mid-September • a deadline for submission of the thesis in mid-December For submission in spring, they are offset by half a year. These deadlines appear reasonable and seem to work well. |
